

TERMS OF USE – SELF SERVICE STORE

PLEASE READ THE TERMS BEFORE ENTERING THE STORE

You must use a payment card with a PIN code to enter the store. NOK 1 is reserved when using the card, but the amount is not charged.

You exit the store by scanning the cash receipt. If you did not buy anything, you can press the "Emergency opener" button at the exit for contact with customer service.

If you bring people into the store using your card to open the door, you are responsible for them. Those you bring with you, must also familiarize themselves with the terms, before entering the store.

When the store is unattended, you can only pay by using a payment card.

Customers must follow the rules as-applies to the purchase of age-specific goods. See notices in the store.

Do not enter the store with items you have purchased before or elsewhere.

Do not bring large bags, backpacks or the like into the store, unless absolutely necessary

It is not allowed to bring animals into the store.

People who are drunk or under the influence of drugs, do not have access to use the store.

In the event of a fire or power failure, leave the store immediately, the doors are automatically unlocked.

If you need assistance call 40 40 49 83

If you meet people in the store who are threatening, leave the store immediately.

You can exit the store by pressing the "Emergency opener" button at the exit door. This triggers an alarm to customer service.

Violation of the terms may result in persons being denied access to the store. If the breach causes financial loss to the store, the person can be held financially responsible. Theft and vandalism are reported.